Release Waiver and Indemnity

By signing for the document below you hereby give Summit Run the right to use in media, including but not limited to, presentations, videos, published materials, promotional materials, and websites created by Summit Run and those acting pursuant to its authority, your photograph, voice and/or video likeness. You hereby waive any right you may have to inspect and approve the finished product or copy that may be created using your image.

You further agree that your participation in any media produced by Summit Run confers no right of ownership whatsoever to you. You release Summit Run and their employees/volunteers from any payment associated with any form of damage, foreseen or unforeseen, associated with the proper use of your image unless it can be shown that said reproduction was maliciously cause, produced and published for the sole purpose of subjecting him/her to ridicule, scandal, reproach and indignity.

You further understand that copies of the materials produced may be produced in print, video or digital format or any combination of the three for purposes of promotion or presentation of Summit Run on social medias.

In consideration of your accepting this entry, I the undersigned intending to be legally bound, hereby for myself, my family, my heirs, executors and administrators, forever waive, release and discharge any and all rights and claims for damages and causes of suit or action, that I at any time have against the Summit Run, all race committee persons, officials, volunteers, board members, Province of Saskatchewan, City of Prince Albert and all sponsors and suppliers of the Summit Run for any and all injuries suffered by me as a result of participation in this event. I can attest that I am physically fit and aware of the dangers and precautions that must be taken when in warm and cold conditions, and have sufficiently prepared for this event.
